

Valarie,
It seems like a short time ago when you went to school for the first time. Now we are busy with graduation plans. It's hard to find the right words to tell you how proud we are of you.
Love,
Mom & Dad

Valarie Lee Folck

GOOD LUCK POOKIE

Love Mom

Luke Woodrum

Brandon,
Congratulations! We are so proud of you! The future is your masterpiece to paint. Remember, we love you unconditionally.

Dad, Lisa, Jessi, Cara, Nic

Brandon Stanley

You started off as a little tike, on your pedal tractor and little bike. Along the way you lost your boots, and cut your long hair that hung so loose, but now your future is at hand, and you've got the will to meet the demand, so strive ahead and accomplish your dreams, never give up no matter how hard it seems.

Love, Mom, Dad, and Family

Anthony Mullis

Phillip,
Thank you for being a blessing in our lives. Use your God given talents to their fullest. Enjoy your college life. Create wonderful memories to share with us---when you bring your dirty laundry home.
We love you PJ.
Mom, Zach, and Eric

Phillip Whitaker

Ms.
The Past 18 years now seem like a blur. You've kept yourself and us, our cars and our billfolds busy. For all you've done and will do - this one's for you. Go get 'em kid. We love you always and are so very proud of you.
Love, Mom, Dad, Grant, Damon, Kristin and Daisy Maye

Brianne Rowan

Jeremy,
What a great start you've made on life's incredible journey. We are all very proud of you.

Love,
Dad, Mom, Jackson, and Krista

Jeremy Rust

Sara,
Graduation day! Wow, where did the time go? It seems like yesterday you were crying and hanging on for dear life because you didn't want to stay at kindergarten on that first day! Now we are getting ready to send you to college. We have some wonderful memories. Good Luck as you enter your college years and know God will always be with you. We are very proud of you.
Love

Mom, Dad, and Inky

Sara Van Bibber