

Fall Homecoming

- Cougars zap Greencastle in victory
- Amanda Zerkel reigns as queen
- Jackson Rust leads team to win
- eUPhONic performs live at dance

WHAT A COUPLE Senior Anthony Mullis escorts fall homecoming queen Amanda Zerkel on to the field. Amanda reigned over the homecoming festivities and the big win over Greencastle.

THE ROYAL COURT Junior princess Brier Brunner, sophomore princess Renne Franklin, and freshman princess Shelby Neier are all smiles after being announced as princesses of their respective classes.

ALL SMILES The underclassmen princess candidates smile for the photographer. Everyone was excited about being nominated and having the opportunity to make new friends in the process.

LONG LIVE THE QUEEN Homecoming queen Amanda Zerkel reigns over the game from her throne. Queen Amanda and her court had to put on coats to brave the chilly, fall weather.

STRIKE A POSE Jeremy Rust pulls back to make a pass during the homecoming game. The Cougars played the Greencastle Tiger Cubs and defeated them 47-7.

FRIENDS FOREVER Seniors Amanda Zerkel, Tanell Hopkins, and Melanie Ellett enjoy friendly competition as homecoming queen candidates.
