During the construction four drywalls were set up. They blocked off sunlight, so Mr. Mitchell and Mr. Zerkel decided to add a little color to the school, thus, making a contest for people in the school to draw something and then turn it in to the office. Teachers, students, Mr. Mitchell, and Mr. Zerkel chose 4 out of 12 drawings. Those chosen artists were Amanda Billings, Tricia Burger, Brianna Waldsmith, and Aaron Strader. They chose the drawings to make the school brighter and happier, and it did!

Amanda Billings

"I drew it because it's not normal. There're two ways you can look at it."

Brianna Waldsmith

"I had a lot of fun doing it. I love to draw, paint, and get messy! It was a different experience and I'm glad I got a chance to do it."

Aaron Strader

"It was fun, but kind of hard to do. I had a lot of help from my friends and we all got out of class a lot."

Tricia Burger

"It was really messy, tiresome, and it took a long time. It doesn't look as good as I thought it would, but I'm glad it's done."
