

The different directions each of you has chosen are what make you unique individuals. The bond that you share is what makes you a unique group of friends. As you move forward with your future plans, hold close to your heart the special times you've shared together. The close friendship you have shared will keep your high school years some of the best years of your lives.

We have enjoyed each one of you. You have always been a delight to be with. You are all destined for success.

Ryan,

These friendships will last a lifetime. As you leave high school remember the good times and strive to add many more through life.

Keith,

Music was a big part of your life in high school. Remember the music you shared with all of these friends. They will remember you and hope to hear your music again.

Dad

"Fear less, hope more;
Whine less, breathe more;
Talk less, say more;
Hate less, love more;
And all good things are yours."

You have a friendship that not all kids get to experience. We experienced it in high school and have remained friends with several of our classmates. Hopefully your closeness lasts throughout life. Good luck as each of you go your separate ways.

"True friendship multiplies the good in life and divides its evils. Strive to have friends, for life without friends is like life on a desert island...to find one real friend in a lifetime is good fortune; to keep him is a blessing." Baltasar Gracian
