

Let The Show Go On

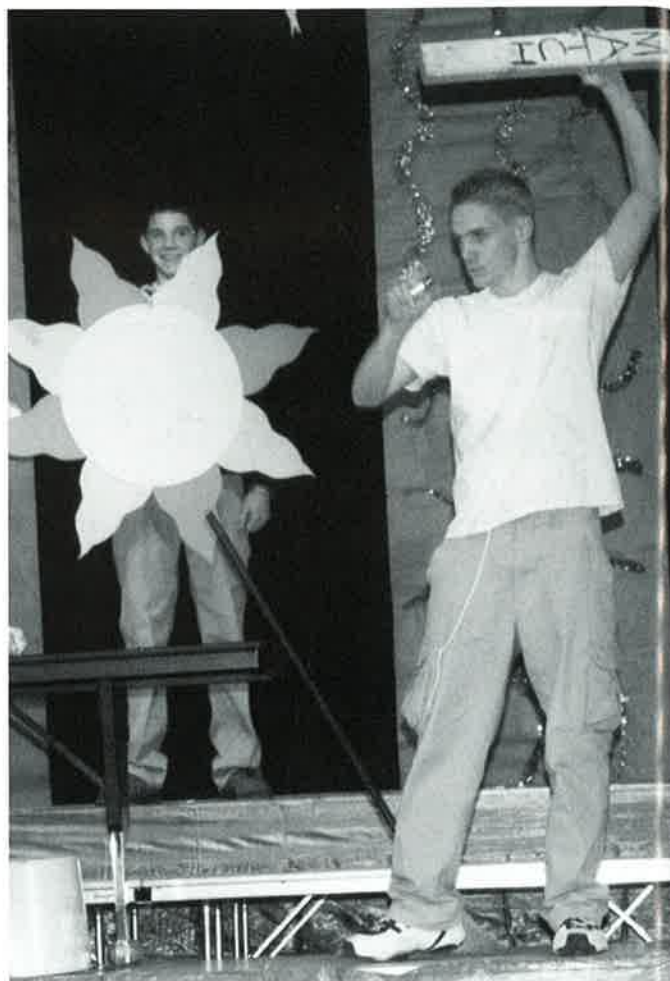

This year's show was a total success. There were 14 acts which ranged from reading poetry, performing skits, singing solo's, and dancing.

A couple of the seniors who are remembering this as their last Variey Show, tell us what it meant to them. Michael Schreiber states, "It was a BLAST!" Michael has participated in the mixed choir for all four years of his high school career. He will now continue his singing for the ISU Choir. Samantha Howell, a member of the girls choir who has also participated in the mixed choir, remembers her last Variety Show. "It was a lot of fun, it was one of the funnest Variety Shows I have ever been in, and it was really different." The underclassmen are all looking forward to future shows.

Above: Amanda Billings and Randi Stromski perform their skit "Camping Chaos."

Right: Damon Rowan challenges James Brown to a match during one of the Variety Show's many skits.

The Accoustics make some noise during their demonstration of the "Cup Concerto".

Crystal Summers stated, "It shows that with a lot of hard work and dedication it will turn out to be a good show."

"I was really nervous, but all in all I think it went very well. Thanks Mrs. Ferguson for a great year!!" Brianna Waldsmith