

ROCK-A-THON 2000

NPHS bands host Cruise-In car show, spring concert May 19

Performances by the high school band, jazz band, and the rock group Killing Time highlighted the 2000 Rock-A-Thon. Musical stylings from the high school band included "Wild, Wild West", "John Williams Movie Adventures", "Zoot Suit Riot" and "Lord of the Dance". The Jazz Band's show included "Black Magic Woman", "Jump, Jive & Wail", "Chica De Espana", and "Georgia On My Mind". There was also a special performance by the NPHS Winter Guard, who danced to a selection from the Broadway hit "Rent".

Band Director Dave Knott wails on the trumpet with the Jazz Band.

Senior Jason Robinson solos on the saxophone and joins the entire Jazz Band (far right).

Dressed in his racing suit, senior Glenn Fenwick polishes the car he entered in the Band Parents' auto show.
