

Behold the amazing people of Oz!

WAY TO GO!

Pictured to the left are the leading cast members together. The cast felt that the musical was a big success. Everyone had fun doing it too, which made it even better.

Hail Oz!
Sophomore Kory Klein portrayed the role of the "Wizard of Oz." Kory is shown here giving the main characters their gifts.

Which way to Emerald City, friends?
Sophomore Joe Strong tries to decide where the munchkins are. Joe portrayed the "Scarecrow" on Saturday.

If I only had a heart.
Senior Ben Majors played the "Tinman" on the second night of the production. He is shown serenading the audience with the song "If I Only Had a Heart".

I'll get you, my pretty!
Senior Tara McColgin played the "Wicked Witch." She is shown here awaiting the arrival of Dorothy.

Freeze!
Senior Wendy Petzl played the part of the "Sorceress." The Sorceress is shown here freezing the Jitterbugs.
