Child of Ours, what you are is everything that means anything to us. Child of ours you are the most perfect moments of our entire lives; moments of memories and sweet, precious times. You are the sunlight that shines on the world and goodness that contains all the hopes in our universe. You are the eyes that lovingly encourage us to see things the way you do, and we will always be grateful for the chance to share that view. Child of ours, you are the miracle of a million things, all wrapped up in the present of one incredibly special person. You are a rare gift unlike any other; a treasure beyond the measure of any possible value. You are so dearly loved by us.

You have always been and always will be our Sarah Sunshine.

Love,
Mom and Dad
