

You've grown up so fast. I'm so proud of you and all of your accomplishments. I love you very much.

May the good Lord be with you down every road you roam. May sunshine and happiness surround you when you're far far away from home. Be courageous and be brave and in my heart you'll always stay forever young. And when you finally fly away I'll be hoping that I served you well. For all the wisdom of a lifetime no one can ever tell. But whatever road you choose I'm right behind you win or lose. Forever young. (Rod Stewart)

Amber, I love you more than you will ever know and it has been a pleasure watching you grow into the person you are.

Good-bye and Good Luck Seniors!!
