

Marching Cougars 2000

Senior Shawn Smith performs his solo.

Introducing the Marching Cougars! (top) Drum Majors for the 2000 marching season are (L to R) Amanda Fordice, Stephanie Brown and Josh Flater. (above) The full band during this year's performance at ISU.

Take the Field!

The band marches out to warm up before beginning their show at ISU. The band placed 4th at the contest on September 16. The weekend before the band placed 1st at the Ben Davis Invitational.

Fall Homecoming Pep Session: (top) The band prepares to perform for their peers. (bottom) Stephanie Brown, Shawn Smith and Jessica Lovell blow the crowd away!

Hail North Putnam! The Marching Cougars began their season by marching in the Putnam County Fair Parade, proudly playing the school song for the onlookers.

Marching Cougar Soloists in action!

Eric Johnson
"It was a great season and it was worth all the work!"
Eric had the first solo in the show with his alto saxophone.

Allysha Barton
"It was fun and I'm glad we went to state my senior year."
Allysha had a sabre solo during Eric's saxophone solo.

Sarah Clark
"It was hard work, but I'm glad we finally made it, it was a great experience!"
Sarah performed her flag solo exuberantly.

Keep it moving!

Sophomore Tressman Goode and Senior Ashley Matthews help the band stay in tempo with their runs on the keyboards. Along with Stephanie Watson and Billy Lanham, the pit did a wonderful job this season, playing Division 1 music in this year's show. "Variations on a Korean Folk Song."