To Our Son, Carmine

You are our first born child. When you were born our lives changed greatly, and we say for the better. We just want you to know that we are very proud of you and that we love you very much. Our wish for you this Graduation day is that like a child at Christmas, you may achieve everything you set out to do. Also to know that we will always be here for you.

All of our love and support always,
Mom and Dad

You entered this world at three pounds, but soon you were growing by leaps and bounds. I remember the day I saw your first smile, all the long nights and worry are surely worthwhile. I kissed all the cuts, scrapes, and big bruises, no doubt caused by running in your "clickety shoes". From the very first time I was able to hold, You've given us more than we ever have told. Our first born who now is ready to show, her parents now comes the time to let her grow.

Brandi- you have struggled and still accomplished. We are so very, very proud of you.

Love Ya,
Mom and Dad

Congratulations Kristin

Well you've made it from Kindergarten to a Senior in high school. In the fall you'll be a freshman in college. We are so proud that you are our daughter. You've worked hard, made it with honors. Keep up the good work and all things will come to you.

May God bless you daily.

Love,

Mom, Dad, and Dominique
