

Spring Fling

A spirited battle of Tug of War
A traditional part of Spring Fling is the annual Tug of War battle between the classes. Assistant Principal Dan Shepherd (below) gives final instructions to the dueling class groups. Then giving it all they had, the senior class (right) tugs with all their might as they beat two underclass groups enroute to a victory.

"You sunk my battleship!"
Joe Strong plots his naval strategy in an attempt to sink Amanda Billings' ships. Various board and card games were available for students to play.

Jam Session

(Right) Sophomore Matt Peacock displays his best Vince Carteresque dunk as teams played 3-on-3 basketball in the gym.

Kiss the Chicken

(Top right) It all came down to the choice of Mr. Shane Grimes or Mrs. Elaine Chase in the Key Club's fundraising event. In the end, Mrs. Chase had to pucker up and give Treg Hopkins's chicken a peck.
