There she is that little Frye
all grown up in the twinkling of an eye
her next stop is to be a C.S.I.
and toward that goal is what she will try.
So follow your heart
and get ready to start;
Let God direct your path and
keep him ever near,
and always know we love you, our Jessica dear.
Love--Wayne and Linda

Grandpa was proud of you and so am I.
Love--Grandma Frye
