

Over The Rainbow

featuring the
North Putnam Winter Guard

The show "Dare to Dream" is an emotional show about the song "Over The Rainbow" by Eva Cassidy. It is nothing like "The Wizard of Oz." The song tells about the sadness of dreaming, the wanting, and the yearning to get somewhere better than where you are. The song is performed through spinning, dancing, and expressing. The thing that people should get out of it the most is the word HOPE. You have nothing if you do not have hope. Just that one word makes a difference.

The 2003 opening pose for the Winter Guard. Members are Stacey Little, Lida Oliver, Jessi O'Hair, Sarah Thomas, Lindsey Snodgrass, Kim English, Jessica Conrad, Ashley Smith, Nicole Pittman, and Brandy Washborn.

Senior
Stacey Little

Junior
Lida Oliver

Sophomore
Jessika O'Hair

Sophomore
Sarah Thomas

Lindsey Snodgrass and Stacey Little make sure they're not going to smell during practice.

After performing for the public at Roachdale Elementary School the girls stop to get their picture taken.