

Krystal: Funny how life works out, huh? Well, I guess you could say I'll miss you guys... Maybe, but all in all I've had fun these past years of my life and will always remember you guys. Tiffany, you'll have to visit me and Jessie in our mansion.

Tiffany: We've had some good times and rough times but we always made it. It's really funny how we met. Jessie, we will have to go camping again by your bridge. "Dude, where did they go?" We will always have great times.

Jessie: I'm gonna miss you guys, but you can always come to my mansion. We'll always have my bridge and ALF, Tiff and Krystal. Think of the Dot. I love you guys.

AMANDA PEYTON

Amanda,
Your dad and I admire your strength and courage and consider ourselves blessed to have you in our lives. Remember that your life can be whatever you want it to be.... that true happiness comes from within.... and ask yourself after each life experience (good or bad), "What am I supposed to learn from this?" What doesn't kill you only makes you stronger! Try to stay positive and don't be too cynical and treasure every phase of your life.

Oh, one more thing.... MEOW!

Love,
Mom & Dad
