Congratulations you've made it!

From the first day of your life, the first day of school, all that was in-between and through your final year of high school you have been a wonderful blessing to us, your family, and all others that have crossed your path of destiny. In this year of reflection and dreams remember special moments with family and friends, knowledge you have acquired and the lessons of life you have learned along the way.

Dream big! Start your journey into your future with pride, courage, and hope. Trust in God and yourself! He will help you conquer your fears and will be your guide along the way. Remember God's virtues- Humility, Honesty, Kindness, Faith, Forgiveness, and Love. Happiness will be sure to follow!

Love Always,
 Mom, Dad, and Tyler
