Katelyn Jane,

May 4, 1989, the day you came into our lives. WOW! Where has the past 18 years gone? Here you are finishing your senior year at NPHS and eager to start your next journey of life at college. As we have told you so many times before, we are so very proud of who you are and what you have accomplished during your high school career. Please continue to have that same motivation during your college career. Dad and I look back and wonder, when did our baby Katelyn grow up? You have grown into such a beautiful, strong-willed and self-motivated young lady. Remember to keep your dreams big and you will be able to achieve anything you put your heart into.

We love you with all our hearts.
Love you Mom, Dad, and Jacob
