Dear Girls,

What beautiful, intelligent women you have both grown up to be . . . Don't forget everyday to thank us for your brains and morals; they will take you both far into the future. I am sad that you both will be leaving us soon. Ellen will be lost without you both.

We are very, very proud of your accomplishments, your hard work, and the way you are willing to conquer what ever life brings you (I have to keep stop writing this to wipe my eyes). We can see that you have found your individuality over the past few years and although you don't always get along, we know that there is a bond between the both of you that will never die.

Seems like yesterday you both were driving those little orange cars and playing in the driveway in Speedway, and now you are on your way to being all grown up. We love every minute of being your parents. Good Luck to both of you in the future and to all of your friends as well.

Loved you first,
Dad, Mom, and Ellen

Matthew & Jordan Couchman

We are so proud of you both -- the best is yet to come!

Love,

Mom & Nel

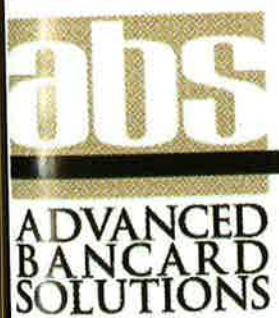

Darren Isaac Wiatt

To our oldest son, Darren,

May God continue to bless you forever.

With unconditional love from your family,

Darrell, Cindy, Darrick,
Ben & Bethany Wiatt
